

MEGlobal Americas Inc. Contribution/Sponsorship Guidelines

1. Our objective is to demonstrate our commitment to the sustainability and success of the communities in which we operate.
2. Our key areas of focus are Education, Environment, Economy, Community and Health and Safety.
3. All requests will be made online through the MEGlobal Funding Request System.
4. MEGlobal's budget is limited, so not all requests will be funded.
5. Organizations applying for funding must have non-profit status, or be part of a municipal or state government agency.
6. All requests must be submitted at least 60 days prior to the date of the event or activity.
7. All information requested must be provided in full at the time of the application.
8. Additional supporting documents, such as a full budget, are encouraged. MEGlobal is unable to support the following types of organizations or activities:
 - Extreme or violent themes, including high risk activities or extreme sports
 - Politically sensitive or controversial subject matters
 - Requests that benefit an individual person or family.
 - Organizations with memberships restricted on the basis of gender, religion, race, background, etc.
 - Religious organizations for projects that only benefit its members and promotes one denomination or religion over others.
Note: Religious organizations may apply for funding, provided the project or program is open to all people and beliefs. For example, MEGlobal will not provide funding for church books, supplies or building construction, but may provide funding for a church-run food pantry that is open to anyone and does not require a religious affiliation.
9. MEGlobal reserves the right to verify the eligibility of any organization prior to paying a contribution or sponsorship. The interpretation, application, and administration of these Guidelines will be determined by MEGlobal, and its decisions shall be final. MEGlobal reserves the right to amend, modify, or discontinue its charitable giving and these Guidelines, in whole or part, at any time without notice.
